USPA NEWS - Proud Moment for British Pakistani Community H.M. The King Meets Pakistan High Commissioner UK
?The Pakistan High Commissioner H.E. Dr. Mohammad Faisal on 24th November 2023, offered his credentials to His Majesty King Charles III at Buckingham Palace. This was a very proud moment for the British Pakistani community in the UK, to see their King of United Kingdom meet H.E. Dr. Mohammad Faisal the High Commissioner of Pakistan, said Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner.

The Pakistan High Commissioner H.E. Dr. Mohammad Faisal, represents Pakistan the ancestral homeland of the British Pakistanis in the United Kingdom. Britain and Pakistan have always had a very special bond throughout Pakistan history. The first and only Queen of Pakistan was the British Queen Elizabeth II. The founder of Pakistan Quaid-E-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah only ever held one official position in his life, that of the Governor General of Her Majesty the Queen, the present King's late mother. The first army chief of Pakistan was British General Frank Walter Messervy. The world's formidable Pakistan intelligence service The ISI was formed by the British. Pakistan is also a very important member of the Commonwealth, of which His Majesty the British King is the Head of the Commonwealth.

All of these unique connections are very special and of significance to the British Pakistani's, such as myself, said Shazada Hayat.
As with any country in the world, there are always ups and downs, politically and economically. Pakistan in recent times has been no exception to this rule. The nation has faced some of the most difficult of times in history. Pakistan has faced not only political and economic turmoil, but catastrophic loss of lives and devastation from the Covid-19 pandemic. As if that was not enough for Pakistan to deal with, the enemies of Pakistan supported by the dark forces within and outside of Pakistan, declared fifth generation hybrid war on Pakistan, which took Pakistan to the brink of economic disaster, which Pakistan has so far managed to stave off. The aim and objective of the fifth-generation war on Pakistan was to divide the Pakistan Army, the Pakistan politicians and the public at large with a view to creating civil disorder and anarchy.

The great defenders of Pakistan took the fifth-generation hybrid war head on and have achieved phenomenal success. The enemies of Pakistan are now on the retreat and expected to be crushed within a short period of time. The rift created by the enemies of Pakistan between the Pakistan army, the politicians and the general public causing the civil unrest which has spilled out of Pakistan and around the world, including in the UK. This was the exact desire of the enemies of Pakistan. The task for the Pakistan High Commissioner in the UK H.E. Dr. Mohammad Faisal, is to normalise the huge difficulties and any hostilities faced by the country inside and outside Pakistan, said Shazada Hayat.

Britain is seen by Pakistan as the capital of politics, diplomatic and economic strategic country in the world. This, coupled with the special relationship and bond between the two great nations is the reason H.E. Dr. Mohammad Faisal was handpicked as Pakistan's world outstanding ace diplomat, to achieve success in the field of international diplomacy, political relations and economic prosperity. As well as this, also to unite the overseas Pakistani community in United Kingdom, to be one voice and to put Pakistan first and foremost above all else. The new Pakistan High Commissioner to the UK H.E. Dr. Mohammad Faisal, is a seasoned ace diplomat with amazing knowledge, experience and wisdom and he is fiercely patriotic, cool calm and a true gentleman in the truest sense. However, this must never be mistaken for his razor-sharp skills in international relations and diplomatic diplomacy. It is fair to say no Pakistani High Commissioner to the UK in the past has ever taken over command in UK, with tremendous difficult of times and adversities, as this present High Commissioner.

In cricket terms, the Pakistan High Commissioner H.E. Dr. Mohammad Faisal has opened the batting in the UK for Pakistan, and he is fully focused and determined to go for glory for his nation. This means he is brave and has the knowledge, experience and wisdom to take on the pace of the hostile bowlers and spinners alike, to achieve his ultimate aims and objectives.

The aims and objectives are to take UK Pakistan relations to all times paramount heights and unite the overseas Pakistani community as one patriotic voice and strength for the betterment of Pakistan and UK relations as a top priority. We the overseas patriotic Pakistani community in United Kingdom stand solidly behind our ancestral motherland Pakistan's High Commissioner H.E. Dr. Fasial Mohammad, said Shazada Hayat.
